CHRISTMAS BIZ AT POSTOFFICE BREAKS RECORD

Arllington Office Swamped; Avalanche of Parcels and Greetings.

It was some Christmas for Arlington Heights people. At least the employees of the postoffice think so. The office, the carriers and the clerks were fairly swamped with an avalanche of parcels and greeting cards. The mail receipts Monday were the greatest they have ever been in the local postoffice, even during the days of prosperity. Eighty-five bags of parcel post were received that day. Where ordinary first class morning mail takes only two half pouches, the first class mail of Tuesday morning was received in six full pouches.

The fathers, dads and children who depend upon the postal department for their Santa Claus were not disappointed on account of the extra heavy mail. The postal force, from the janitor to the postmistress, worked extra hours and with the postal machinery well oiled, there was no confusion and everything was o-k except for the impatient patrons who could not understand why the postoffice department could not handle 10,000 pieces of morning mail as quickly as it usually handled a thousand or so. The Postoffice at Palatine was equally smothered with holiday mail, but Postmaster Kehe saw to it that Palatine people were able to get it at least by Christmas morning. Mr. Kehe personally delivered all packages on Christmas morning of those whose address he knew. The local postoffice handled at least a 25 per cent increase of Christmas packages over last year.

Northwest Dental Credit Association Have An Interest in Meeting

The Northwest Dental Credit association held their December meeting Tuesday evening, Dec. 17, at Des Plaines. Arrangements have been made with the Congregational church trustees to hold the meetings the second Tuesday of each month when dinner will be served and a meeting room provided.

Inasmuch as two prominent men were secured as speakers the business meeting was cut as short as possible. Dr. Ben Friedman of Chicago gave a clinic on treatment of pyorrhea supplementing a talk with several reels of movies. Dr. Burroughs of Kelly-Burroughs laboratories then gave a clinic on impression work for full dentures. Inasmuch as his patient was not present one of the edentulous members from Edison Park was pressed into service, but not until the boys promised to complete a plate for him from the impression. He felt he deserved a Christmas present and in absence of another patient the members were forced to concede. When it was over he confessed his two year old plate didn't fit anyhow, so it was a nice move on his part.

Attendance was high, a very few being absent. The Illinois Dental Credit association continues to grow. A Dr. Parker of St. Louis also was present and spent several hours with President Dr. Bauman, who explained the workings of our branch to him. Dr. Parker was delegated by a group in St. Louis who are organizing to "get the dope" so to speak, and the central office sent him to Northwest's meeting, as one typical of a live group of dentists.

Shingles, After 51 Years Service Find Use for Show Purpose

Mr. Volberding of Bensenville, last week decided that the barn on his farm needed reshingling as the ones on the barn had been there 51 years. So the work was begun and no sooner had they began taking off the old shingles than a stranger called on the Volberdings and asked to purchase the old shingles who stated that he wanted to use them in the construction of a booth at the flower show to be given in Chicago March 27 to 28. And so he obtained the shingles and those who attend the flower show next March will see these same shingles that had been in use on a farm for 51 years again passed into service in a very artistic manner to erect a booth at the flower show.

P. E. O. Husbands Have An Exciting Evening

The P. E. O. were hosts to their husbands at a B. I. L. party Saturday evening at the home of the Geo. Herrmanns. The guests were unsuspecting when they arrived and did not learn until it was too late that there was an initiation for the men who returned home realizing that women can occasionally put it over the men, and they are still wondering if the obligation they took for secrecy was really in earnest.

Park District Annexes New Territory

All of Arlington Heights is within the Arlington park district. The people of the original district voted 52 to nine in favor of the annexation of the territory within the village that was not included in the original park district. The residents of the district to be annexed voted 18 to one in favor of the change. Eighty votes in all were cast.

XMAS BASKETS BRING CHEER TO NEEDY

Thirty Arlington Families Have Good Dinners Brought To Them.

Thirty Arlington Heights families were made more happy Christmas day by the display of the Christmas spirit on the part of local organizations. The number of food baskets may have exceeded the above figures, but that number were all that were reported to local relief officials.

A number of individuals asked for names and delivered their own baskets, but the societies participating in the spread of the Christmas cheer in the form of baskets were the Lutheran Dorcas Aid and Welcome Club, the Lions club and the P. E. O., the latter confining their efforts to the "shut ins."

Miss Jackson, the community nurse, has made application to the WLS radio fund for a radio for a young man who can not leave his home.

There are other societies and organizations who cared for families in their own groups, whose activities were not reported.

GEORGE OLCESE GIVES PARTY TO CHILDREN

Twelve hundred and sixty-eight children and grownups were the guests of George Olcese and the Wheeling Township Regular Democratic Organization Monday afternoon at their annual children's Christmas party.

Shortly after one thirty the first of the children began to arrive and by two o'clock there was scarcely standing room. Mr. Olcese greeted the children and made everyone feel at home. Christmas carols were played and then George presented Master Allen Reinshagen, who very ably entertained with feats of magic and showed the grownups how easy money disappears at this time of year. Dad knew that answer. He was fine. Miss Jackie Tossaint, a young lady of Arlington Heights, next sang, and was warmly applauded. George stood her on a chair so the audience could see her. Community singing and Christmas stories were the next order of event, when a commotion at the door announced the arrival of Santa Claus—and no one but Santa could have gotten in and how that lane opened up for him is still a mystery.

Santa told them how Mr. Olcese had gotten in touch with him and how glad he was to be there, hear what they wanted and see his good friend George Olcese. He told them he had set the afternoon aside for them and George and he wanted to meet each little boy and girl, hear what they most wanted and give them a present, and did he stay. It took him to seven-thirty to pass out the stockings full of candy, apples, oranges, tangerines and jigsaw puzzles, and all the time the air was full of Christmas carols. What a party, what a crowd of happy smiling faces. George, we congratulate you. It was a fine idea, a grand success. And believe it or not, not one word of politics was heard. To Miss Jackson, Mr. Schaeffer, the Dreyer Electric, Mr. Scolari, Mr. Harley Easton and the men and women who so kindly and graciously helped, the Wheeling Township Regular Democratic Organization says thank you. If you saw those smiling faces you received your reward.

This organization stated that they intend to make this an annual event and wish to serve all of the people all of the time.

Holds 1500 Trump, 300 Pinocle in Single Deck

When it comes to a really honest to goodness hand in cards, C. M. Crane, 616 N. Dunton, Arlington Heights, is tops. In a single deck in a three handed game played Saturday at the Park View Tavern he held 1500 trump and a 300 pinocle without the blind. When you beat it, please let us know.

FARMER ASKS FAIR PLAY BY VILLAGES

Claims the Disconnected Areas Can Be Charged for Sewer Service.

Note—Last week's paper contained a story that Arlington Heights was about to carry to the Supreme court, if necessary, a case in which an area with sewage facilities sought to be disconnected from the village. Attorney Thal took the stand that as said area had future rights to connect with said sewer, said area must remain within the village. This reply was written by a Roselle farmer, who with others, are seeking separation from that village upon the same cases as is being attempted in Arlington Heights.

Editor Herald:

Have read with interest in your paper of Dec. 20, 1935, about the undivided property owners seeking disconnection from Arlington Heights and naturally the same privilege will be sought in other municipalities. No doubt many difficult problems will have to be solved.

However, I am astounded at the contention of Atty. Hugo Thal, that municipalities, in the future, cannot compel disconnected area users to contribute toward the operating and maintenance cost of the sewer disposal, therefore citing the new law as unfair and would probably be declared invalid by the Supreme court. I firmly believe his contention is all wrong!

In order to explain this more thoroughly, permit me to review in detail several sections of the laws which were passed to serve and guide the people, but time and unenforced conditions have found laws to become antiquated and in order to keep pace with progress, were repealed, amendments made or new laws created.

In 1872 a law was passed granting communities of 300 population or more, the privilege to incorporate as a village, permitting them to include up to 1,280 acres. In their limits and levy, a general tax (with limitations) on all properties according to value, in order to defray operating and maintenance costs.

At that time, 1872, there were no expensive improvements to maintain and the few extra pennies in taxes was money well spent for the sake of convenience to be near schools, stores, etc., in the horse and buggy days by the undivided landowners.

During the march of progress, in 1901, as improvements were needed, water for consumption and fire protection, sewers for health and sanitation, sidewalks, lights, etc., for convenience, an amendment was passed, permitting municipalities to assess lots, blocks or parcels, so benefited by the various improvements, providing that no lot, block, tract or parcel shall be assessed a greater amount than it will actually be benefited. This, under circumstances, also applies to property adjoining municipalities.

In 1932, an amendment was passed authorizing villages to levy an additional tax of 1 1/2 mills per $100 valuation, for sewerage disposal purposes. Other municipalities, as well as Arlington Heights, have taken advantage of this law and increased the general tax levies. I feel assured, if Atty. Thal will give this a careful thought, he must admit that this procedure, although legal, is absolutely unfair to the one not using the improvements.

In 1933 a disconnecting law was passed, permitting lands used for agricultural purposes only, to be withheld from the payment of this and other fair taxation. This law was later declared unconstitutional by the Supreme Court, as being unfair class legislation thus becoming invalid.

The new remodeled law, recently passed, is apparently bombproof, as an onslaught is to be expected. It provides for all undivided lands, regardless of the purpose it is used for, to withdraw.

With the present financial condition and unemployment situation of our country, with many municipalities in need of extensive improvements, to care for the ever increasing population, an amendment was passed in July, 1933, where with the aid of a loan from the reconstruction finance corporation, bonds may be issued and paid for solely from operating revenues derived thereof. This system is in vogue in Chicago and has been adopted in Barrington.

An annual rental fee is charged for maintenance and bond retirement and is found to be a very satisfactory arrangement. It is legal to sell fire protection, city water, power, light, etc., by municipalities to non-residents and there is no reason why a just and fair charge cannot be made for sewer privileges enjoyed by disconnected areas.

So there is nothing to worry about as to paying for his neighbors benefits.

Christmas Seals Returns Must Be In Soon

With Christmas past, there is only one Christmas job left for Arlington Heights—the prompt remittance of amount due the local health committee for Christmas seals that were not returned or deposited in the box at the J. D. Plentice office. The village of Arlington Heights appreciate the health service that is partly made possible by the sale of Christmas seals and the committee hopes that those who have not sent in their checks or cash will do so before New Years.

Cars Wrecked But Occupants Uninjured In 'Slippery' Accidents

Two accidents occurred at the corner of Chicago Ave. and Northwest highway at Palatine Wednesday afternoon, within a few minutes of each other. In the first, two cars were badly wrecked, one of them being a 1936 Pontiac. In the other accident, there were hair raising escapes for both cars and occupants. The accidents were caused by the slippery hill that marks the approach to the Northwest highway from Chicago avenue.

Ward Wentz of Palatine, was unable to stop his car and slid into the path of a Pontiac driven by Mr. Pedersen of Barrington. The car of the former was hit squarely. The Barrington car was occupied by Mrs. Svoboda of Abrams, Wis., and Peter Pedersen and family who were on their way to visit a sick woman in a Chicago hospital. None of them were injured.

A few minutes later Fred Harming of Palatine turned from Chicago Ave. to the highway as a car driven by Wm. Low of Cary, came from the north. The rear bumpers of both cars locked and there was a merry-go-round for the Low car, which finally stopped 18 inches from an electric service pole. Both drivers congratulated themselves that none were hurt and drove off.

J. H. Wiemerslage Retires After Fifty Years

J. H. Wiemerslage closed his market last Saturday in the Mors building, Arlington Heights, after fifty years as a meat market man. When a lad of 13 years he entered a market. The first 26 years were spent in Oak Park, followed by eight years with Davis stores. He came to Palatine 13 years ago and has been operating his own store in Arlington Heights the past six years.

His old patrons made personal calls upon him last Saturday, in place of phone calls, to say good bye to a market man whose judgment on meats was respected by them. Mr. Wiemerslage is too young a man to retire entirely, but has no definite plans for the future.

Harker Chinaware Sunday at Arlington

With New Year's Eve falling on Tuesday and New Year's Day on Wednesday, the Arlington management was hard put to devise two days for the giving away of the weekly Chinaware offering. Sunday and Monday was finally decided upon. The "Last Days of Pompeii" is a big and costly picture and one of the highest rental price pictures of the season. The combination of this picture and the cost of China added, will require a large attendance to justify the investment. The latest "Our Gang" comedy in three reels will practically make the Sunday and Monday offering a double feature affair. Seats are selling right along for the New Year's Eve frolic. Looks like a complete sell out in spite of the fact that hundreds will go for the earlier shows, that night, at the reduced admission price.

Child's Dead Body Found on Milw. Ave.

Two schoolboys, during their recess adventures December 17, came upon a small bundle and being curious, opened it. Sheriff's Highway Police were immediately summoned and Sgt. Allegretti in charge of the investigation, discovered that the bundle contained the body (dead) of a newly born baby. This unfortunate discovery was made beneath the Milwaukee Ave. bridge of the Soo Line R. R. The body was removed to the Cook County Morgue and the case is still being investigated.

Injury Proves Fatal To Lt. Meyering Formerly of Milw. Ave. Station

An injury to the arm received while on duty, claimed the life of Lt. Meyering of the Sheriff's Highway Police, James A. Meyering, who was laid to rest at the Mt. Olivet cemetery. Many notables were present, including District Attorney Michael L. Igle, Judge Burke, Judge Leve, Judge Hartigan and Captain Wm. F. Collins of the Chicago Police Dept. Mr. Meyering was a brother to former Sheriff Wm. D. Meyering.

Contest Closes at Krause's Cash Market

Five grand prizes were given away by Krause's Cash Market to those who obtained the greatest number of votes in a contest that closed Tuesday evening. Ruth Held topped the list with 42,713 votes, winning a bicycle. A tent was awarded to second place to Albert Behn. Jerry Hill received a pair of ice skates, Wilbert Neitzel, a ping pong set, and Richard Jahn, a pair of roller skates.

LAKE-COOK FARM SUPPLY CUTS A MELON

Does a Half Million Dollars of Business During 1934.

The directors of the Lake-Cook Farm Supply Company met last Saturday, December 21, and reviewed the audit of the business of the company for the year just closed. The review disclosed many pleasant results. The Lake-Cook Farm Supply Company, being born in 1927, has steadily grown and advanced forward in its service to the farmers of this district, until now the Company has five warehouses at Grayslake, Lake Zurich, Arlington Heights, Blue Island and Tinley Park, with the main office at Grayslake, and an additional bulk plant at Roselle.

The Company did close to a half million dollar business in 1935, and due to an extremely low cost of doing business was able to show a net profit of $41,000.00. Thirty people are employed to carry on this large business and to give the proper service to the farmers of our district.

The Board declared the regular 6% dividend on Preferred Stock, and distributed the remainder of the $41,000.00 to its stockholders by declaring a 15% patronage dividend on petroleum products, and a 4% patronage dividend on feeds. This will be coming as a New Year's present to the stockholders during the latter part of January.

BETTER MILK PRICES AHEAD IS U. S. REPORT

Survey Indicates Better Outlook for Cook and Du Page Dairymen.

DuPage and Cook county dairymen may face the approach of 1936 with a smile because the economics and market experts in the United States department of agriculture say "dairymen in 1936 may expect higher prices for their products." The outlook is for only a moderate increase in milk production with an increase in consumer demand.

The expectations are based on a survey of the national dairy industry which has revealed that milk production for three successive months has declined more than the usual seasonal trend. This is no doubt due, it is pointed out, to a change from a season of unusually abundant pasture to a dry feed combined with rather poor pastures in the late fall and the fact that many cows were further along in the milking period.

The survey report, presented in the department of agriculture, "Agricultural Outlook for 1936" says:

"During the next two years the number of milk cows in the country as a whole is not expected to show much change. October 1 replies from farmers showed a larger increase planned than in any season since 1931, but on the other hand the number of heifers and heifer calves being raised for milk cows is slightly less than the number normally required for replacements. The number of heifer calves saved for milk cows is likely to continue relatively small as long as the price of milk cows continues low in comparison with the prices of beef cattle, veal calves, and other livestock."

"A moderate increase in total milk production is in prospect for 1936 as higher milk production per cow is expected to more than offset the decrease in the number of milk cows. Milk production per cow, which declined steadily from 1929 to 1934, rose to about average during the summer of 1935 under the influence of good pastures and increased spring freshening, but a sharp decline between September 1 and November 1 has brought it down to about the level of 1934."

"The move favorable feed situation expected during the coming winter should prevent low milk production as occurred during the late months of last winter, but production during the coming winter will probably be lower than average in many sections."

The survey also states that the consumption of milk is expected to increase due to the improvement of payrolls and incomes throughout the country.

ROSE-LO INN GETS LIQUOR LICENSE

Board Recognizes Rights of Applicant; Pledges Mayor Future Support.

After nine months effort on the part of Rose-Lo Inn, corner of Euclid and Northwest highway, Arlington Heights, to secure a liquor license, success came to them last Saturday when the village board passed a resolution recognizing the issuance of such a license, but pledging its full support to the local liquor commissioner for strict adherence to the provisions of the present liquor control ordinance. During the consideration of the resolution, some of the members apparently favored letting down the bars for as many applicants as offered to pay the license fee, but finally the resolution was passed unanimously.

Reading between the lines of the resolution, the village is bowing to the orders of the state liquor control commission instead of spending the money to fight a case in higher courts which would only decide a technicality and which would not mean the trying of the case upon its merits.

The board also by its resolution stands pat on the number of licenses to be issued at the end of the present period and will resist to the "fullest extent any further applications for licenses."

Mr. Thal explained to the board Saturday night that the recent decision of the circuit court was relative to a technicality as to whether or not the state liquor board had a right to grant two hearings to the village and was not a hearing as to the merits of the case, which has not yet been presented to other than the liquor commission.

Resolution

Whereas the repeal of the local liquor commissioner to the circuit court of Cook County from the decision of the state liquor control commission relating to the application of Ben Rosenquist for a liquor license has been dismissed by Judge Feinberg of the circuit court on the ground that said state commission had granted two hearings instead of one and

Whereas, an appeal to the supreme court from the order of Judge Feinberg will not determine the controversy on its merits, and

Whereas, therefore the local liquor commissioner has issued a license for the remainder of the license year to the said Rosenquist, now therefore be it

Resolved that said action of the local liquor commissioner be approved and be it further resolved it is the opinion of this board that any further applications for licenses in excess of the limit provided by ordinance be resisted to the fullest extent and that this board lend its fullest support to said local commissioner in resisting any further applications for licenses.

Arlington Housewives Are Even Suspicious Of The Mail Man

Perhaps the housewives of Arlington Heights are not naturally suspicious, but Louie, the parcel post carrier has appealed to the Herald for help. "One would think," says Louie, "that over fifty per cent of the houses are fortified and a secret signal must be given, before they will even answer the postman's ring. Even during the Christmas season when the general public should be expecting to receive packages from Santa Claus, I had to press the bell button two or three times, at some places before the occupants would come to the door."

The Herald has suggested that hereafter Louie wear sleigh bells when delivering Christmas packages, but during the rest of the year, Louie is open to suggestions. In the meantime, Louie will give door bells two short rings and hopes that occupants will come to the door a running so as to speed him on his way.

Fred Schaeffer, 72, Dies of Pneumonia

Fred Schaeffer, Mt. Prospect, died from pneumonia Christmas night at the age of 72 years.

Funeral services will be held Sunday afternoon at 1:30 at the home and 2:00 at the St. John's church, Elk Grove. Rev. Gehrs will officiate.

Northbrook Man Killed By Train

Al Meucci, age 31, of Northbrook, Ill., driving his truck west on Techny road December 21, apparently failed to observe the warning signal lights at the crossing of the C. M. & St. Paul R. R. tracks and was struck by a Chicago road passenger train and was instantly killed. The truck and body were hurled 300 feet down the tracks. The vehicle was so badly demolished that Sheriff's Highway Police investigating the case, were unable to obtain the license or motor number.

Boys and Girls Win Prizes at Sieburg's

The Rexall boys and girls contest at Sieburg's Drug store ended Christmas Eve with prizes awarded to eight boys and eight girls who ranked highest in the number of votes achieved. The contest ran for a month and offered Christmas gifts to those who worked the hardest.

One Killed, One Severely Injured In Wheeling Accident

Roy F. Hendle of Chicago, Ill., accompanied by Joseph McConnell and Charles Brazier of Chicago, while driving his car north on Milwaukee avenue December 22, had the misfortune of having the car get beyond his control and striking a fire hydrant, with the result that Brazier died of his injuries and McConnell is in a critical condition. This accident took place in Wheeling, Ill. Hendle was held for the inquest which was continued pending the outcome of McConnell's injuries, after which he will be faced with having to take care of the damages done to the hydrant.

RECEPTION TO MARK START ON INTERC. SEWER

Sanitary District Will Be Guests at Des Plaines Jan. 3.

The Suburban Area and Country Towns Association of Cook county, James A. Howe of Oak Park, president, will celebrate the start of work on the new Des Plaines Intersecting Sewer at a reception to the Sanitary District officials Friday, Jan. 3, 1936, at 2:30 p. m. in the Masonic Temple hall in Des Plaines.

At this meeting, besides Ross Woodhull, president of the Sanitary District, Dr. S. S. Fuller, president of the Des Plaines Valley Mosquito Abatement District, Mayor Kinder of Des Plaines, Village President Kraussner of Maywood, Mayor Janura of Berwyn, and Mayor Hussey of Forest Park, and other Mayors and Presidents of communities in the Des Plaines Valley will speak.

The officials and Civic groups of the municipalities along the Des Plaines river have for years worked for some means to prevent the pollution of that stream. Now, through the aid of a P. W. A. grant, the Chicago Sanitary District is starting construction of an intercepting sewer to run from Des Plaines to the South West Treatment plant and from there to the drainage canal—a total of about twenty miles of sewer and outlet, at a total estimated cost of $8,300,000.

When completed, this sewer will end the pollution of the River, so that this stream will again be comparatively free from sewage and enjoyable again as a source of beauty.

This improvement will be of immense value to every community along the Des Plaines river. Every municipal official of the towns along the River during the past fifteen years has worked to bring it about; and officials of the Suburban Area Association invite all past officials together with all civic organizations, newspapers and the public to join with us in this celebration of the successful culmination of this work.

"THANKS" SAYS RUTH
Miss Ruth Held, 12 South State road is riding a new bicycle, or rather, will be riding as soon as the snow melts. As winner of the grand prize in the contest at Krause's Cash Market, a bicycle, she wishes to thank her many friends for helping her to win the contest.

Arlington Ballroom Offers Gala New Years Eve Celebration

There promises to be a gala New Years celebration at Arlington ballroom. The inimitable dance music of Borchardt's orchestra will be combined with other attractions. The price is only $1.00 per person. As only a limited number of tickets are to be sold, they should be purchased early.

XMAS GIFT FOR NATIONAL BANK DEPOSITORS

Twelve Per Cent Dividend in Mails, Brings Total to Over 40 Pct.

The depositors of the First National Bank of Palatine, are receiving a Christmas gift in the form of dividend checks of 12%, totaling $14,000. This brings the total of dividends paid to 40%, which is greater than any of the other closed banks in Palatine or Arlington Heights and ranks high with all of the closed banks in the Northwest territory.

Melvin B. Erickson, the receiver, is being congratulated upon the progress that he has made in the liquidation of this bank. None of the fixtures, or equipment has been sold and remain intact for use of the stockholders after final settlement is made. Such a condition does not exist in many other closed banking institutions, where the receiver in the process of liquidation has disposed of considerable equipment, even including safety vaults, marble and steel. The Arlington Heights State Bank is one of these and that that practically remains in that building are the four walls. The assets of the latter institution are frozen to such an extent that sale of equipment for benefit of depositors was considered necessary.

Plan Annual Meeting Of Boy Scout Council

Under the direction of its chairman, Chas. S. Stewart of Des Plaines, the annual meeting committee met last week at the home of the Scout Executive to plan for the annual meeting of the council. Thursday, January 23, is the date that has been selected and on that occasion scout officials, scout leaders, parents and friends of Scouting, will assemble to receive reports on the progress that has been made during the past year and to elect officers and make plans for Scouting throughout the area for the coming year. In addition there will be a program of entertaining features and a speaker of note.

Another committee consisting of E. J. Anderson, chairman and H. H. Calkins of Barrington; Wm. A. Miles of Arlington Heights; A. J. Beckmann of Park Ridge and A. R. Crawford of Niles, is hard at work at the task of selecting officers for the coming year.

P. M. A. Offers $25 Scholarships for U. of I. Dairy Short Course

Eight scholarships of $25 each have been established by the Pure Milk Association for young farm people from Illinois PMA families who desire to take the Dairy Short Course which is conducted during Farm and Home Week each year at the University of Illinois, it was announced by President John P. Case today.

Annual Farm and Home Week will be held January 13 to 17, 1936. All young men belonging to PMA families and who are 19 to 25 years of age are eligible. The University of Illinois will select the eight students on the following basis:

1. Record of previous experience.
2. Brief statement of their farm experience and intention to continue dairy farming.
3. A short essay on the "Opportunities and Difficulties of Dairy Farming in Illinois."
4. Four letters of recommendation from residents of their community.

The scholarships cover the entire expense of the course, transportation, and room and board. Application should be made immediately to R. R. Hudelson, College of Agriculture, University of Illinois.

In addition, the Pure Milk Association is offering four scholarships of $50 each both in Wisconsin and Indiana on the same basis, making a total of 16 scholarships for the three states of the Chicago milk shed.

"Agriculture must prepare its young people for the future," declared President Case, in commenting upon the scholarships. "I know of no better way to do this than by making it possible for them to study for entrance into their life vocation."

George L. Wilburn Completes 30 Years With Telephone Co.

Friends are extending congratulations to George L. Wilburn, manager of the Illinois Bell Telephone Company, who, although a comparatively young man, has been in the service of the telephone company thirty years.

On December 16, 1905, Mr. Wilburn entered the service of the company at Barrington, serving as a "trouble shooter" for both Palatine and Arlington Heights. He later became manager of these towns and in 1918 was transferred to Woodstock. Since that time he has been district manager of a large territory which still includes Palatine.

HAIL PERRY AS GREATEST DEM. LEADER

300 Attend Dinner in His Honor at Naperville, on Thursday.

Oratorical testimonials in which he heard himself called the greatest political leader in Du Page county's history and one of the most successful in Illinois were delivered by party representatives at a banquet Thursday night in Naperville, in honor of Joseph S. Perry, chairman of the Du Page County Democratic Central Committee.

With invitations restricted to office holders and active party members, more than 300 attended. The affair was kept secret from Perry, who thought he was to address a small group on Roosevelt's Farm Program. As toastmaster, Circuit Judge Max F. Allaben of Glen Ellyn called on a score to speak, each one outdoing the other in laudation of the Wheaton lawyer whom the Horner Administration considers as having made the greatest strides in party progress of any down-state county leader in Illinois.

Climaxing the program was the presentation by Charles W. McDonald, prominent Wheaton Democrat, of a gift of elaborate office furniture and equipment purchased by party member for Perry's use as Master-in-Chancery of the Du Page County Circuit Court.

Predicts Horner's Return by 600,000 Votes

Commending the sales tax as the most practical mode of revenue raising consistent with Illinois' peculiar State Constitution and with the good of the commonwealth, Benjamin F. Levering, Wheaton attorney, predicted Friday night before an audience in the Du Page County courthouse at Wheaton that Governor Horner, sponsor of the tax, would return to the gubernatorial chair in next year's election by a margin even greater than his 1932 majority of 600,000.

Called to organize a Du Page "Horner for Governor" club, the meeting elected Levering president. Thomas F. Maisel of Lombard was chosen vice president and Adolph J. Meadel, Lisle, secretary.

Levering, who is a boyhood chum of the state executive, also emphasized Horner's honesty and competency, claiming in this respect the incumbent was one of a few political phenomena in Illinois history. He said Republicans and intra-party opponents alike and scotched in attacking Horner's integrity, adding:

"Horner's governmental achievements as governor are historical. His attacks are self-seekers who in the absence of a record that warrants criticism, resort to vicious campaign. But Illinois voters are wise and their wisdom will be reflected in returning Horner to office."

ITASCA

Lawrence Schneider came home from the CCC camp for Christmas, and with a friend who came with him was present at the family dinner held at the home of his aunt, Mrs. Paul Degankolb on Christmas day.

Mrs. H. F. Lawrence and daughters, Misses Idaclaire and Grace, left Tuesday for Macomb, Illinois, where they spent several days during Christmas week with Rev. and Mrs. Leike and family.

OBSERVER'S NOTES

Merrily rings the Christmas chime, What are we thinking of all the time?

Are we thinking of Bethlehem, Of the babe to wear a diadem? Do we think of Christ who came That we might be free from sin and shame?

Or are we gazing on tawdry things, And all that gold and glitter brings; Losing sight of God's great gift, That Radiates glory man to uplift; Away with tawdry perishing things,

When the glorious bell of Christmas rings? To the babe that shall wear a diadem; O Bells of Christmas, may you impart, The true Christmas spirit into each heart!

Here comes Christmas! And we wish a Merry Christmas to everyone who reads these notes. A true joy in our great Christmas gift.

It wearies us to see how far Christmas has lost the real joy of the Babe of Bethlehem, and become a season of mercantile riot. It horrifies us to see Santa in pictures and human figures, even with a cigar in his mouth!

Have just been informed that the Herald will come off the press the day after Christmas. Perhaps there will be more time for taking inventory. One thing even a poor paragrapher can tell you sure, the holiday season is no time for collecting news or studying the condition of our town and its good people.

Introducing here a column of Medley verse dealing with society, customs, religion, politics or what have you? Like this:

If I should take a little bit, Of pasteboard, putting a flower on it, With my name, then send it on to you, I think you would feel just as I do. You would rather, if you had your choice, See my friendly face, and hear my voice;

Christmas cards to many appeal, I had rather see you, how do you feel?

Here comes a perfect 36, To find us in a terrible fix; Candidates worried all be gone, To know which side the fence they're on.

One steals another's New Deal thunder, While voters look on in dumb wonder; Christmas carols cease to ring, Giving way to politicians fling; Stand for the "Perfect 36," Let "G. O. P." learn the Donkey's tricks.

The invasion of turkey has past, to give way to the Christmas goose; may no one by mistake slay the goose that laid the "golden egg" for speed the day when (dare I say it?) when our Gold Standard shall make safe our Nation's currency. La! Me! Why bring that up now? Christmas is here and let politics and politicians rest in "innocuous Desuetude."

Education of parents now becomes a problem. Mother's classes to study child psychology. P. T. A. organizations, Mother's clubs; think a father who says he goes to the movies, not because he enjoys the pictures, but in order to be able to understand his children's language as learned in the shows, is doing his best to keep up with the procession.

Who can but sympathize with politicians in not being able to select a candidate when like our Christmas cards they come popping up from every state in the Union, and from the heap of cards on the table, who can select those most deserving a reply? Like problems?

Strange isn't it the short memory most people have in regard to weather. Hear them speak of our autumn this year as a severe season. To be sure the past days of the week ending December 21, were rather cold, marking zero and below, yet there was no storm or severe winds. The days bright with sunshine, perfect Christmas weather.

You may have heard of the old gentleman who, when he was going to the theater, would stuff cotton in his ears. When asked why he did this, he said, "because he knew whatever they were saying he was sure he would disagree with them." Just about the way one feels nowadays, when one has to be where politicians are discussing public economy.

However, we may differ in politics or climatic conditions, there is something all Christian people agree in the joy of the Christmas time. It is not what you give or what you receive, it is that one who has the child heart who knows its thrills.

It is that one whose heart never grows old, who never loses the joy of simple common things, and who never loses the pleasure in other's joy that most happily experiences the real Christmas spirit that abides all through the year, and radiates its blessed influence on everyone who comes within its light.

He who keepeth the childlike heart Wareth the Christmas gem, Angels to him ever impart The message of Bethlehem.

Hide from wise and prudent still, Is God's miracle of Peace, The childlike heart, it feels the thrill, Of its charm as years' increase.

He who keepeth the heart of a child, Simple, trusting and pure; All unconfused, unbeguiled, By man made creeds that cure.

He who keepeth a heart like this, O blest shall his Christmas be, The joy, the peace, the untold bliss, Of its world old mystery.

Have got away from the joy of Christmas time? Have you worn off the indescribable feeling of the Christmas thrill? You have heard the churches and cathedrals loud hosanna's. You heard the most wonderful orchestras, and the noted vocalists in "Holy Night, Silent Night." In all our home churches in a degree these have been observed.

We do some times seem to forget, yet in our hearts we do remember that Christmas means not the music, the feastings and the giving, but over all and the life of all these is the indwelling of the Christmas Spirit in our hearts and lives. Tell you what, peace, love and peace pacts will never bring us God's Peace and Good Will until we have the grace of God in our hearts and will open the windows of life to let the Christ Spirit enter to abide with us.

Merry Christmas! One and all! Over the air to you I call; Glad and sincere, O glorious day, O precious gift, God gave through Him our lives to lift;

From sins reign here, Hail to the birthday of our King! Loud let the Christmas anthems ring.

That all may hear it, This wish for all who pause to hear, Is, "May you keep all the long year The Christmas Spirit."

A year or two ago little John told me he made a fine snow man, but "he wouldn't hang together." Just like that snow man are we, here in Arlington Heights. We seem to be built all right, but we won't hang together, hence, there is no peace, no harmony.

I say it again, if we, the people of Arlington Heights would hang together for the right, all would yet be well. It takes some great and tremendous shake up like this overwhelming unemployment avalanche, to awaken us to harmonize and work together as one. May I say, led by the touch of the Christ spirit in our unspicable need as prosperity never touched us.

For this week preceding Christmas, there has been ringing with bells and Christmas, our mother queen of song, has given her never to be forgotten, "Silent Night." Orchestras have vied with each other, while old Christmas stories are repeated. Dickens has come in for a grand share in carols and our inimitable book critic Woolcott added to the quoted prayer of "Little Tim," "God bless us every one, with a few exceptions."

Let them hang the holly and trim the tree and tell bed time stories, yet with radio, stream lined trains, airplanes and new fangled toys and contraptions, nothing can excel the story of Christmas, the child in the manger, the star and the magi, the angel message, as we, in childhood learned it in our home from our parents, and the "Book of Books," the child who came to bring "Peace, Good Will" on earth, we repeat over and over, Merry Christmas. If we really understand the Christmas joy, the Christmas spirit, we will abide in it all the year—God help us to so abide.

Once more Christmas comes to cheer, With its wondrous atmosphere; Let them all earths wealth withhold; Let them whisper "She grows old," Yet the years cannot destroy Christmas gladness, Christmas joy.

Childhood's rapture does not fade, When the years long their trail; Bears us swift along their trail, Childhood gladness does not fail, Though defeat like mountains piled, Lives each year the Christmas child.

Though the way was dark and far, Every Christmas shines the star; Friends may fail and hope depart, If you keep the Christ child heart You will waken each New Year, In the Christmas atmosphere.

Lives again the old home joy, In each little girl and boy; Though we're old, and they but ten, Our joy wakes in their's again; Our joy, gladness on each face We in sympathy can trace.

Tell what sets our hearts astir; When we hear the Christmas bells, When the joyous anthem swells; When the candles are alight, Choirs singing Holy night?

Hang the holly, light the tree, Spread the presents lavishly; Sav the covers for the feast, Bid the greatest and the least; None of these can yet reveal, What is Christmas great appeal.

Search in all material things, For the joy each Christmas brings, Search for that which makes our eyes, Lift expectant to the skies When we greet the Christmas morn,

When the blest Christ child was born, O, it was that blessed gift, That all hearts to Him uplift; Matters not if young or old, Christmas gladness, our hearts hold;

The blest joy that came with Him, Years and sorrow cannot dim.

Years and sorrow cannot dim.

O, the blessed Christmas gift, May our lives to Him uplift; May His spirit in us dwell, Through the year, our lives to tell; Our kings birthday! May He fill All our hearts with Peace Good Will.

Here we can only add "May God bless you every one" (without any exceptions). May the Christmas Spirit bring to you your full share the whole year through.

Gray Snow
Snow is sometimes tinged by various foreign substances in its fall to the earth, and may thus take on various colors, notes a writer in Literary Digest. Certain algae floating in the atmosphere may give snow a red tinge or a green tinge, and soot may give it a gray tinge, or, if the soot is very dense, the snow may appear almost black.

Varied Governments
Mexico proclaimed its independence from Spain in 1810 and effected it in 1821. From 1821 to 1837, a period of 36 years, no less than 36 different forms of government were experimentally adopted and discarded and some 70 individuals, one by one, respectively, intrusted with the chief executive post of the nation.

Robert Henry Fiene, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Fiene, celebrated his eighth birthday, December 14. All the relatives came to help start Robert Henry on his way to number nine. A wonderful cake with eight candles; other gifts to delight an eight year old boy. A jolly good time and what more could a big full grown man have or enjoy.

The V. F. W. Auxiliary are planning to hold their Christmas party in the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Beckman, December 28. It is to be a real party, a sort of second Christmas. The men of the auxiliary families are to help make up the attendance. There is to be all possible done to make this a perfect Christmas, including a perfect host and hostess. The near approach of the New Year suggested Happy New Year wishes from, and to all present. As this was to be the last party of 1935, no plans could be made for 1936. The politicians are doing all that.

The many friends of Mrs. John Berchold, made a happy party in her home December 18. Neighbors and relatives gave her a real cheer. They brought gifts most pleasing and hamper of generous refreshments. All in cheerful mood to cheer this dear friend so much shut in, and so worthy of all their kindest efforts to strengthen and cheer. Among the guests were Mrs. Gaare, Sr., Mrs. Gaare, Jr., Mrs. Langhorst, Mrs. Hanna Kirchhoff and Mrs. Weide. All wished Mrs. Berchold many happy returns.

The Benjamin Electric group of young women workers went to Palatine for a real Christmas party on Mrs. Sarah Wilson, a respected, retired worker with whom they had been pleasantly associated. They took hampers of choice refreshments, and acceptable gifts, all bound together with loving esteem. They made up a purse in which the employees of the company helped to "Balance the budget." Though in advance of Christmas, this party radiated the true Christmas spirit, and was heartily and helpfully a Christmas party.

Mr. Elbert Wheeler, our well known Impresario Tenor, has a contract with the Chicago Festival Opera company for the coming season. Last Saturday night Mr. Wheeler's tenor soloist in the 131st Army Military ball in Chicago. His many Arlington Heights friends are hoping we may hear him over the air in this one of his many fine achievements.

MARRIED—BUSSE-MEYERS

Miss Irene Busse and Mr. Martin Meyers were married in the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Busse on Algonquin road, Saturday, December 14, 1935. The Rev. P. L. Gehrs of Elk Grove solemnized the sacred marriage rites. The newlyweds go to their farm home to live where the good wishes of friends of both families and hosts of others wish them all happiness, and are sure they will not need to be out of employment or seeking a job.

ARLINGTON HTS.

What is the news? The Christmas goose Leftovers we must put to use: Here honest men see some big job is getting every good fat job: Cheer up, good neighbors, soon or late, Each low down rascal meets his fate; The Christmas brought to us good cheer; Let us keep Christmas spirit all the year; Read through this paper, line on line, And bring good news to make it shine.

Save New Year good wishes until the next issue, though we hold cargoes of the best wishes for a Happy New Year for everyone.

The work in Meadow Park still goes on. How can anyone blame those men, getting such "Happy days have come again" wages, if they work day and night.

Mr. and Mrs. John Simons are the parents of a boy, born Dec. 11. Anton Scolari is at home from Notre Dame University for the holidays.

Dr. and Mrs. Howard Dunn had as Christmas guests, Mrs. Dunn's mother and sisters from Chicago.

A beautiful white snow now covers the ground, the third or fourth installment to insure our white Christmas.

Mrs. G. H. Peter and the Framburgs entertained a family gathering in Mrs. Peters' home Christmas day.

We are glad to learn that Pastor Fricke's family are restored to their usual health and ability to do their daily tasks.

The schools closed last week for a two week holiday vacation, and the children seem to be enjoying it to the fullest extent.

Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Sachs had as Christmas guests their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Fairman from the city.

Mr. and Mrs. Forest Nickols were much disappointed because they had to give up their plan for spending their Christmas in Mrs. Nichols' mother's home because of illness in her mother's home.

Mrs. R. J. Guild plans to have as Christmas guests her son, Bruce R. Guild, his wife and their lively trio of children.

The V. F. W. auxiliary went to Elgin Sunday afternoon to carry their best Christmas cheer to our war heroes at Elgin. Candy cookies cigarettes (shall I say the three C's), and all the little gifts to make a Christmas atmosphere for those our soldiers we too often forget.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Kelo celebrated Christmas with relatives in Chicago.

The College Inn WBBM contest sponsored by St. James church scheduled for Dec. 27, has been postponed to January 10. Watch this paper for further announcements.

Fish Guards Eggs

The blenny, a species of small fish, commonly guards its eggs. Not infrequently a blenny may lay its eggs inside a bottle and if this bottle is dredged up in a net it is quite likely that the parent will be found inside keeping watch over the eggs.

White Ash Rival o. Hickory

White ash is almost equal to hickory in strength and is exceedingly elastic. It is apt to split if the grain is uneven, and does not withstand exposure to weather without becoming rough.

Grant Once Owned Slaves

General Grant was once a slave owner. He married Julia Dent when he returned from the Mexican war in 1818. Her father owned a number of slaves and the newlyweds were presented with a slave boy as a wedding present. The Dent family kept their slaves until the close of the Civil war.

A New Year A New Vision A New Effort

The Arlington Heights business men, whose New Year's greetings appear upon this page are confident that Arlington Heights is upon the threshold of a great year—one of better business and happier citizens.

The extent with which the individual business man or you as a private citizen will participate in the better times depends upon the optimism of both of us.

As business men we have resolved to show our optimism by making our stores more attractive and to bring to Arlington Heights the class of goods and service that you people want.

As private citizens we are banking upon your cooperation in making Arlington Heights a great city and the year 1936 a great year.

NILES CENTER

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Isaacson are spending Christmas with Mrs. Isaacson's parents, who live near Champaign, Ill.

Mr. and Mrs. John Jarmuth spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. John Reinberg, helping Mrs. Reinberg celebrate her birthday.

The George Tess family had a telegram on Saturday that Herbert Tess, second son of Mrs. and Mrs. Frank Tess from Panama, Calif., had passed away. The cause of his death was not disclosed.

Mr. and Mrs. Ardell Frownfelter are pleased to have Mrs. Frownfelter's sisters here for the holidays, the Misses Line from Omaha.

The Niles Center Woman's club board met on Monday night and accepted as a new member, Mrs. Hartry F. Ross. The next regular meeting of the club will be Thursday, January 2, in the Municipal building.

Mr. Wilbur Jarmuth from Vermillion, South Dakota, called on Mr. and Mrs. John Jarmuth and Mrs. Louise Klehm and the Mayers on his "stop over" Saturday night from Harvard. The surprise was indeed a pleasant one.

Miss Elsie Stidow entertained the A. P. L. members and their husbands at the annual Christmas party. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Paul E. Allen, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Harms, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond C. Klehm, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Keiser, Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Noetting, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Remke, Mr. and Mrs. Armin J. Mayer, Mr. and Mrs. Adam Harms, Mr. and Mrs. George Lepper, Mr. and Mrs. Ruby Galtz, Misses Evelyn A. Brown, Emma Harms, Erna E. Koellner, Messrs. Jack Flynn, Harvey Brown and Frank Maierhofer. A delicious supper was served after an interesting game of bridge was enjoyed by all.

The Woman's Union of St. Peter's Evangelical church held its annual election of officers last week and Mrs. Paul E. Winger was elected as president; Mrs. Edgar Ruesch as vice president; Mrs. Claude E. Lange, as treasurer and Mrs. W. Dale Todd as financial secretary.

Mrs. Jacob Meyer passed away last Sunday afternoon. She leaves to mourn her invalid husband, her daughters, Mrs. Martha Schoeneberger, Mrs. Margaret Trausch, Mrs. Louise Tilges, Mrs. Theresa Gabel, Mrs. Helen Weidner and sons, George and Walter. Funeral Thursday at St. Peter's Catholic church.

The choir of St. Peter's Evangelical church will give a wonderful Christmas concert on Sunday, December 29, at 4 p. m. in the church auditorium. No admission will be charged, but a free will offering will be taken. Be sure to bring your friends to hear this exceptional fine concert.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. Noetting observed their twentieth wedding anniversary on Tuesday.

The Niles Center Women's club made up nineteen Christmas baskets that were distributed among needy families in the community. They also sent one bushel of apples and a case of oranges with their other regular donation of five dollars to the Park Ridge School for Girls of the Illinois Cottage.

EAST MAINE

We wish for our kind readers one and all a prosperous and happy New Year and may 1936 bring the fulfillment of many cherished dreams and ambitions.

Holy Communion will be celebrated in German at the Divine services at St. Matthews Lutheran church, New Year's Eve, December 31, starting at 7 o'clock p. m.

Santa Claus was present in person at the Christmas party and program given by the pupils of the East Maine public school Monday evening of this week. There will be two full weeks of vacation for both schools this year.

Miss Esther Bach is spending the holidays with her folks in Minnesota. She left for home Friday evening of last week.

In case you missed last week's announcement, we repeat, the East Maine P. T. A. are sponsoring a masquerade dance at the Croatian school auditorium, Saturday evening, January 18. Popular admission prices, good music and a hearty welcome to one and all.

A crowd of fifty guests helped Mr. August Geweke celebrate his seventy-third birthday anniversary at his home, Saturday evening, December 21. A large birthday cake graced the center of the long table at which the men were served a delicious birthday dinner. Later in the evening cards were enjoyed.

Another of East Maine's young men joined the ranks of the happily married, when at four o'clock Saturday afternoon, Mr. Walter Bruhn and Miss Elsie Vogt of Mt. Prospect, were united in marriage by Pastor Julius Toepel at St. Matthews Lutheran parsonage. A wedding supper was served at the home of the bride's parents with members of both families present. The newlyweds will make their home with "Wally's" folks, Mr. and Mrs. John Bruhn where the young groom will work part of the land of the old Schwinge farm. We wish them good luck and happiness in the future.

Under choir news we find that St. Matthews choir in their annual election this month re-elected all officers as follows, William Frank, president; Walter Busse, vice president; Ray Stet, treasurer; Esther Bach, secretary, and Herman Schellin, librarian. It was also decided that the choir would again present a three act play early in 1936, the dates for the presentation of same to be selected at the January business meeting.

A Rhyme
O' Health

Take healthful exercise each day; Your health and strength will double; Take long walks and join a gym; You'll find it's worth the trouble.

THE GREAT out-of-doors seems to hold a great deal of lure for most people, especially on these warm, balmy days.

An outdoor life is, of course, an ideal existence from a health standpoint, but most of us who work in shops or offices don't have the opportunity to be out in the fresh air and sunshine as much as we would like.

Consequently, it's very important that we get our full share of health building elements in some other way. That's where proper food comes in. Plenty of fresh fruits, vegetables and fresh pasteurized milk will do much to keep one's body in a healthful condition even when one can't get sufficient outdoor exercise.

However, there are many ways in which one can indulge in some physical activity. Especially during the summer Chicago land offers hundreds of opportunities to participate in some sport—tennis, golf, swimming, riding, motoring, polo, baseball, hiking, camping or just plain walking.

On Saturday afternoons, Sundays, or in the early evenings will be found ample time for one to get in a few hours of worthwhile exercise.

BARRINGTON KEEPS PIRATES IN CELLAR

Palatine Keeps Up Losing Streak and Lose 38 to 20; 14-10.

The B. H. S. Bronchos basketball quintet gained its second conference win in three starts and held its second place tie with three other teams in the Northwest conference standing by easily defeating the Palatine Pirates in a game on the local floor Friday night. Palatine went down by a 38 to 20 score as the Barrington high school heavyweights rang up their most decisive victory of the season.

The Bronchos are rapidly gaining the reputation of being "tough to beat" on their home floor and such was the case Friday night as the Pirates' sorrow. It became evident in the first quarter that the game was not going to be very close.

Paced by Norrie Grabenkort and Ernie Anderson, the Bronchos ran up a 16 to 5 lead at the end of the initial period. Palatine gained four points in the second quarter to trail 11 to 18 but after the intermission the B. H. S. quint went to work again outscoring the Pirates 20 to 9 in the second half. The Bronchos were ahead 30 to 17 at the three-quarter mark.

Grabenkort and Klopfenstein were the spark plugs in the Bronko attack, the former connecting for five field goals and three free tosses, and the latter snaring five baskets from the floor. Ernie Anderson, although only playing only a little over a half, scored seven points. Wittenburg with seven, and Mess with six points, topped the Pirate scoring.

The Bronchos committed 17 fouls while the Pirates committed only six. Palatine sank but ten of their 19 free throws, the local quint missed only one out of nine. Four of the five starting Bronchos were guilty of three personal but none went out on fouls.

The Barrington Ponies remained undefeated in the conference lightweight race by winning from the Palatine lights by a 14 to 10 score. Wild, as usual, the Ponies after trailing most of the game, put on a last minute rally to triumph. Palatine led 6-3 at the half but helped by Hermann of the visitors who obligingly made a basket for his opponents, the Ponies finally worked up to a 10 all tie. Baskets by Gaare and Miller clinched the victory.

Because of the Christmas holidays the high school teams will not play again until January 10 when Bensenville comes here for a pair of games.

Final Scores:
Barrington (38) 38, Palatine (20) 20.
Bensenville (14) 14, Lake Forest (10) 10.
Barrington (14) 14, Lake Forest (10) 10.

Bensenville Splits With Lake Forest

Bensenville and Lake Forest split an interesting double header last Friday. The Bensenville heavies won 33 to 27, while the Lake Forest lights topped the opener 26-16.

Lake Forest was out in front all the way to win the first game. Diek was the standout in this game with timely help from Rose and Kennedy.

Lake Forest led until the half in the heavyweight game, being ahead 11 to 10 at the quarter and 18 to 14 at the half. Bensenville spurred in the third to score 9 points while holding Lake Forest scoreless. This put Bensenville ahead 23-18. Bensenville scored 10 points to the Lake's 9 in a wild fourth quarter to hold their six point edge when the final gun popped.

Pilgrim, Franzen, Freeman and Koske collaborated to maintain Bensenville's early season promise of a high class team. They are joined with Libertyville to be the only two undefeated heavyweight teams in the conference. Burgess starred for the losers.

ARLINGTON WINS A GAME

Well, well, well! Arlington won a ball game! Just when everyone thought it quite likely that Arlington was going to finish up 1935 without winning a single game, practice or otherwise, the Cardinals got "hot" and presented their coach with a victory over Wauconda 46-26. Earlier in the evening the "Lights," also "het up" for the evening swamped the Wauconda Juniors 31-5.

At no time in either game was Wauconda ever dangerous. Both Arlington teams started fast and were in front all the way. The principal difference between the Arlington team last Friday night and the evenings previous when they were losing was that last Friday they were hitting the basket on shots that they had been missing. Last Friday they were even hitting the hard ones where previously they were even missing setups.

Annen, Capt. Johnson and Pingel were the big three for Arlington. Between them they snared 16 of their 18 field goals. Annen started them off on the right foot with a couple of baskets. Then Johnson began to connect, then Pingel popped in his quota in rapid succession. Johnson neared the conference record for total points in a conference game by chalking up 26. 14 were by means of field goals and 6 on free throws. Dearie was an adept floor worker and consistently fed his teammates for easy shots.

Buoyed up by the fact that they were hitting their shots the Cardinals were on their toes all through the game. The half ended with them out in front 25 to 9, and despite frequent substitutions in the second half which marred their defensive work they maintained and added onto their lead.

However, Wauconda kept trying and almost kept pace with the flying Cards the second half registering 17 points to Arlington's 21 for the half. The two Dowells and Koppin kept their team together and fought gamely in the face of almost certain defeat.

Arlington's "Lights" scored almost as they pleased to earn their victory. Wauconda's best efforts were entirely futile in the face of a constant bombardment by Mills, Schneberger, Grismer, Foley and Annen.

AT THE CATLOW

The New Year's Eve Midnight show at the Catlow theatre, Barrington, promises to top anything ever before presented on a like occasion. Jack Benny, with an all-star line up of laugh-getters will be starred in the feature attraction, "It's In The Air." Benny portrays a Broadway "chiseler" who possesses a million and one rackets. In spite of his shady and national dealings, luck makes him a national hero. Una Merkel, Ted Healy, Nat Pendleton and Grant Mitchell are co-starred. In addition there will be a group of short subjects, including a color holiday cartoon, a sizzling colored troupe in band presentation, El Brendel doing his stuff among the Mexican senoritas and a Song Parade of Familiar New Years giving the audience a chance to sing out the Old and in the New Year.

The early evening shows at 7:00 and 9:00 p. m. will feature Edmund Lowe in "King Solomon of Broadway."

New Year's program, on Wednesday and Thursday, with Matinee New Year's Day, will bring Wallace Beery, Jackie Cooper and "Spanky" McFarland in "O'Shaughnessy's Boy." It is a story of circus life, and offers wonderful entertainment, both in comedy and heart-tugs.

Friday night of this week Edward Everett Horton will be seen in "His Night Out." A $125.00 Jack Pot will be an added item of interest. Saturday offers Charles Farrell in the season's football hit, "Fighting Youth." This is also a Jack Pot night.

Sunday and Monday is scheduled for the showing of Dick Powell's "Thanks A Million." This is another brand new picture, which scored a hit in the Loop recently.

Boy Scouts at Camp Oh-Da-Ko-Ta

With ten inches of ice on Dyer Lake and the many hills of Camp Oh-Da-Ko-Ta well blanketed with snow there can be no doubt as to the enjoyable outcome of the winter camping venture upon which eighteen Northwest Suburban Council Scouts and one leader have embarked. With bags filled with warm blankets and clothing and with skates, skis, sleds, hockey sticks, etc., sticking out all over, these hardy lads arrived at the beautiful Kenosha Council camp site shortly before noon and proceeded to "dig in" for a five day outing that promises to be an outstanding experience of their lives. Under the personal supervision of Scout Executive Howard A. Gately of Kenosha, assisted by experienced leaders, Ray Johnson and Herbert Schafer, who are well known to Scouts, the entire group, together with similar group from Kenosha, will enjoy five days of winter sports, outdoor activities and winter camping and Scouting. They will break camp immediately after breakfast Tuesday, the 31st and return to their homes. The spacious and adequate lodge of the camp that was used for the dining hall in the summer time has been equipped with heating facilities and the entire party will be comfortably housed there.

C. & N. W. Now Offers Free Pick Up and Delivery Service to All

Free pick up and delivery of less than carload freight at every agency station on the Chicago and North Western Railway, one of the most wide reaching and important freight service developments of this century, will go into effect at almost 1,000 points on January 20, 1936. H. W. Beyers, vice president, traffic of the North Western, Chicago, announces.

This free service means that anyone shipping or receiving merchandise within the Western Trunk line and Illinois freight territory can turn the whole job over to the railway—store door to store door and receive the complete pick up and delivery service for the cost of what has up to now, been railroad station to railroad station service.

Local trucking and transfer concerns will handle the work for the Chicago and North Western Railway under a contract agreement with the road. It is felt by officials of the road that local business men will be aided by the expected pick up in this type of business under such an arrangement. In case the shipper or receiver elects to perform his own delivery or pick up he will be allowed 5c per hundred pounds by the railway.

"The shipment of merchandise freight on American railroads has been shrinking constantly during the last fifteen years," Mr. Beyers stated in commenting on the change. "Much of this has been due to the fact that railroads have not been able to offer 'complete' service. We on North Western are confident that this new free pick up and delivery service, although installed at a considerable expense, eventually will not only halt the flow of merchandise traffic from the rails but also will result in a steady increase in this type of business."

Why A Long-And-Short-Haul Clause?

(The Railroad's View Point)
The long-and-short-haul clause, a burden on business and a handicap to railroads, will be eliminated from the Interstate Commerce Act if Congress passes the Pettengill Bill, H. R. 3263, as unanimously recommended by the Committee on Interstate and Foreign Commerce of the House of Representatives, after full hearings.

When this clause of the Interstate Commerce Act took its present form in 1910, railroads were our only important form of inland transportation. That was before the Panama Canal was opened and before we had spent billions of dollars on waterways and highways.

Today, conditions are entirely different. Other forms of transportation, using these new publicly-built facilities, are not restricted in their competition by any long-and-short-haul clause, nor is there any thought of applying to them the restrictions which handicap the railroads in meeting competition. The new act to regulate motor carriers, passed at the last session of Congress, does not contain a long-and-short-haul clause, nor does the pending bill proposing to regulate carriers by water. Only railroads are subject to this restriction.

While elimination of the long-and-short-haul clause will allow railroads more freedom in meeting competition, it will not change the fundamental requirements of the Interstate Commerce Act that all rates shall be reasonable and shall not unduly discriminate as between places or persons. The Interstate Commerce Commission still will have power to prescribe maximum and minimum rates and to see that no railroad shall put into effect, at competitive points, rates so low as to add to the cost of moving freight from interior or intermediate points. Fairer and more equal conditions of competition will mean larger tonnage and lower unit costs of operation for railroads, better service for all points, and better conditions as to pay rolls and taxes for those intermediate points which depend on rail service.

Yule-tide Traditions

Christmas time so rich in tradition is without doubt the happiest time of the year. Yule-tide, called turning-time of the sun, was the great celebration of our Saxon forefathers. At this annual rebirth of the sun, great logs blazed in honor of Thor and Odin. It is gratifying to know that at this season of the year, following the winter-solstice, no quarrels were countenanced even among the gods, because this was peace-stead, a time of peace and goodwill among the primitive people of the Northland.

The mistletoe first found growing on an oak tree in the garden of Valhalla, was supposed to possess magical power, according to its younger god. On account of its mysterious growth, it was held in great reverence by the Druids, whose priests cut down the green boughs with a golden sickle which was never used for any other purpose.

The boar appears in mythology as a symbol of the sun. He was a gift to the god Frey, god of rain, sunshine and the fruits of the earth. This boar was a remarkable animal, who sped over air and water with great speed, his golden bristles typifying the sun's rays. Darkness could not overtake him. At one time the boar was believed to be emblematic of golden grain since he was the first to teach man the art of ploughing. He was held in reverence for this service by the Norsemen.

Professor Schwarz tells us that our Christmas tree represents the belief of those who thought that as the sun rose higher and higher in the heavens, it represented a celestial sun tree. He tells us that our fir tree was decked as it's symbol. The lights represent the flashes of lightning overhead, the golden apples, nuts and balls, symbolize the sun, moon and stars and the little animals hung in the branches be-taken the sacrifice made in gratitude to the sun god.

In England the Yule-log was haled in with great ceremony, amid song and merriment. Emblematic of warmth and light, it was supposed to bring good luck to the household. If possible, it was of oak, since the oak tree was sacred to Thor. Each member of the family seated in turn upon the log, saluted it hoping to receive good luck. Each year it was lighted from the embers of its predecessor.

In the great halls of England the boar's head was brought to the table in state. It was borne in on an immense salver, by the "old blue-coated serving man." Trumpeters preceded him, mummings followed, and thus with great pomp he was ushered in and placed upon the table, decorated with holly.

The father of the family, or head of the household, laid his hand on the dish containing the "boar of atonement," as it was called, swearing to be faithful to his family and to fulfill his obligations as a man of honor. Before the carving, this act was performed by every man present. The carver had to be a man of undaunted courage and high character.

A week before Christmas merry parties of young people gathered green boughs of holly in the woods, since it was unlucky to have holly brought into the house previous to Christmas Eve. It added to the gaiety of the festivities to see the lovely branches brought in on that auspicious night with jest and song.

"Lo, now is come our joyfulest feast."

Let every man be jolly,
Each room with yvie leaves be drest,

And every post with holly."

Elsie Traut relates the legend of the little Christ-child, wandering over all the world on Christmas Eve, bearing on its shoulders a bundle of evergreens. Through city streets and country lanes, up and down hill to proudest castle and lowliest hovel, through cold and storm, sleet and ice, this Holy Child travels, to be welcomed or rejected at the door at which it pleads for succor. Those who would invite Him in and long for His coming, set a lighted candle in the window to guide Him on His way hither.

They also believe that He comes to them in the guise of any alms-craving, wandering person, who knocks humbly at their door for sustenance, thus testing their benevolence. In many places the aid rendered the beggar is looked upon as hospitality shown to Christ.

This legend is typical of the true Christian spirit, which finds in the heart of everyone the divinity of Christ. Selfishness is rebuked and the lesson of our great Teacher, to love one another, becomes a reality.

May the evergreens, emblems of peace and gladness and the light of love gleam in every home on Christmas Day, and may the New Year bring joy and inspiration to every one.

Made an Effective Prayer

In the Seventeenth century, Galileo, founder of experimental science, when threatened with torture, knelt to Pope Urban VII and saved his life by mumbling, "I, Galileo, being in my seventeenth year, sick, a prisoner, and on my knees, adjure, curse and detest the error and heresy that the earth moves."

John Fritsch Dies In N. Northfield

John Fritsch, respected pioneer resident of the North Northfield neighborhood, passed away Sunday evening, December 15, at his home, Dundee and Pfingsten roads. He had been ill for several months. Funeral services were held Thursday afternoon, December 19, at the United Evangelical church in Highland Park. Burial was in North Northfield cemetery.

Scout Executive Nimtz Transfers to Indiana; Leaves Great Record

Chas. O. Nimtz, Northwest region Scout executive who has lived and been in charge of all Scout troops in the Northwest district since February, 1929, is leaving Des Plaines on the first of the year to take over as Scout Executive at Anderson, Indiana. He will have charge of four counties of the Kik-thawund Council.

Des Plaines and the Northwest scout region rejoice with Mr. Nimtz at his promotion but regret the absence of his fine character, which has done so much for scouting here, in this region. Scouting has experienced marked growth, despite the depression years, under his administration.

Recreational Jobs Open for Relief Clients

When opportunity knocks, it behooves us to pay heed lest—having knocked—it pass on to never more return.
If you have a background of training in physical education; experience in children's recreational activities—games, sports, etc., gained in parks, playgrounds, or settlement houses and feel qualified to take over work of developing strong bodies and clean and active minds, directing children in good active sports, you are hearing opportunity's knock.
All Relief Clients who feel they are qualified to direct recreational activities for groups of children, make haste to file an application with the Illinois States Employment Service, 678 Lee Street, Des Plaines, Illinois. It's very possible that we can help you to reestablish yourself in a pleasant, gainful occupation.
Remember—this applies only to Relief Clients qualified to direct recreational activities.

Pioneer, 80, Dies At Libertyville

Edward Quentin, 80, of 206 Maple avenue, Libertyville, died last week at the Condell Memorial hospital after a brief illness.

Taken ill on Monday, Dec. 16, the aged man was rushed to the hospital for observation, but doctors were unable to diagnose the cause of illness before his death on December 18.

Born at Quentin corners on Rand road near Lake Zurich, the deceased lived in Lake county all of his life and was well known throughout the farming communities. He maintained a farm at Fairfield until 1902, when he moved to Libertyville with his family.

Quentin was married in 1884 to Miss Sophia Drake, and to their union three children, Frank G. and Arthur A. of Chicago, Miss Gertrude Quentin of North Chicago, were born. His first wife died in 1899, and he married Miss Emma Devermann in 1904. To the latter union two children, Leroy and Olive were born.

In addition to the children, all of whom are living, Quentin is survived by his widow and by a brother, Henry, and a sister, Mrs. Mary Seipp, both of Chicago.
Funeral services were held Friday at 2:00 p. m. from the home with burial in Lakeside cemetery. Quentin road west of Palatine was named after this family. His brother conducted a store at Quentin corners at the junction of that road and Rand road a great many years.
